

FUEL YOUR HEART

To help you focus on what makes you happy, this month we're encouraging you to Fuel your Heart. Spend quality time with family, friends, colleagues or even yourself, and you'll build stronger relationships and live a more fulfilled life.

We also want you to get involved. We've uploaded a blank heart frame onto the Accent on You website, and we want you to help us fill it with your heart-warming, happy moments.

Simply take a photo while you're doing any of the activities below and upload the picture here: bit.ly/2XZxQHw
